

Join Us at the Metropolitan Area Planning Council Winter Council Meeting

Help shape the region's transportation future!

On February 25, the MAPC Winter Council meeting will focus on the Boston Region MPO's Long-Range Transportation Plan. Attendees will participate in an interactive exercise to experience the challenges of meeting the region's transportation needs with existing resources and to weigh in on priorities. This feedback will help guide the MPO as it develops recommendations for the region's future transportation system.

An RSVP is required to attend this session.
